Seven races are carded at the Fair Grounds to-day, and in each case the fields are distinctly open. If a best bet is to be picked, Broomhandle would seem fitted as the medium.

King's Charm was held at 5 to 2 in the early betting, but was backed down to 2 early betting, but was backed down to 2 to 1 before that price had long been on the boards. Decoration was held at 4 to 1 and Meran was at 9 to 2 for a considerable period. The improved condition of the track enabled races to be run more strictly to form than those of the days when mud and slush prevailed.

The course was still heavy near the rall, but it was much better than on the previous day. By this afternoon it should be in fair shape if fair weather continues.

After investigation of his ride on Tristan Shandy, the Fair Grounds judges decided to remove Jockey Raynor's suspension. He has been on the ground for some days as a result of his mount finishing fat back in the ruck in going seemingly suited to the gelding.

Statements were made to the judges that Tristan Shandy had stepped on a bale hook just before the race. His foot was said to have been so sore that he stopped abruptly when bumped in the race. Evidence was also taken as to his suiking propensities when interfered with. Doctor Rixford has the gelding in charge at present, and his testimony was accepted as to the reason for Tristan Shandy quitting so abruptly. Raynor may be seen in the saddle again to-day.

Kansas City, Mo., April 28.-The first circuit running meet in years in Kansas City will be inaugurated here to-morrow, opened, under the auspices of the Kansas City Jockey Club. Yesterday's course was not fast, but it was partly lumpy. Near the rail it was heavy and holding, though apparently dry on top, and the fleids all took the long

Irby Bennett seemed to find the track to his liking. He ran a rather nice race, was well handled and came from behind at the proper time. Doe Skin ran a good race and was a strong second, although it seemed that Knowledge could have put seemed that Knowledge could have put up a harder battle for place money, upon a little activity on his rider's part in the closing strides.

Decoration, King's Charm and Meran, all selected by The Republic, won the first three races on the card. Decoration was a mild sort of favorite, but was held at astonishingly liberal prices, considering the size of the field in which he started. Once his boy set him down there was nothing to the race and he came home alone.

King's Charm was well handled by Gullett in the second race, put up a neat contest and finished well in front. Short Cake ran a good race and was a nice sec-contest and finished well in front. Short Cake ran a good race and was a nice second, while Christelle got third money. In the third Meran ran a fair race, got off mederately well, was sent forward at the right time and came home first by a good margin. Then came the day's feature, in which Irby Bennett proved himself best in the going.

The fifth race resulted in some crowding and bumping at the head of the stretch. Tommy Foster was a mild sort of favorite in this race and seemed to have the best chance at the turn for home. Then a general crossing and josding resulted in which Foster was caught. A little further down the stretch he seemed to swerve himself and add to the general disorder.

In the midst of this, Loyable came home first, with Four Leaf C. and Velasquez
